Teacher summary

Scripture's dragon / serpent is not one cartoon. The serpent deceives; God promises a crush; a bronze serpent is lifted so the bitten live (Jesus names that type); God crushes sea-dragons; Revelation names the great dragon as the ancient serpent, devil, Satan, then casts him down. Do not flatten jackal-ruins verses or Genesis 1 sea-creatures into the enemy. Do not collapse the bronze serpent (Christ lifted) into the dragon God crushes.

Which word, which image?

Match story cards and emblems to the lemma the passage uses. Rahab here is the sea-monster / Egypt, not the woman of Jericho.

MOTIF NETWORKS

Narrative summary per weave — expand any network to read the passages.

Leviathan / Sea Dragon Crushed

Job's Leviathan is first a creature too great to hook — wonder at what God made. The psalms and Isaiah then sing the LORD crushing sea-dragon heads and, on that day, punishing Leviathan with his sword.

Limit: Job 41 is wonder at a creature God made — teach that before any Satan/chaos overlay. Isa 27:1 is the eschatological sword.

The Bronze Serpent Lifted Up

Fiery serpents bite the camp; Moses lifts a bronze serpent and the bitten who look, live. Jesus names the type: as Moses lifted the serpent, so the Son of Man must be lifted up. Hezekiah later smashes the image when it becomes an idol.

Limit: This is Christ lifted up — not the dragon-enemy thread. 2 Kings 18:4 warns against turning the image into an idol.

The Great Dragon Cast Down

A great red dragon wars in heaven, is thrown down, wars with the woman and her offspring, is bound, and is judged. John names him: ancient serpent, devil, Satan. Teach the name-chain; draw scale, storm, and light — not gore.

Limit: Coloring: scale, storm, and light — no gore, no close-up horror face. The name-chain (dragon = serpent = devil) is teacher gold.

The Serpent and the Promised Crush

The serpent deceives in the garden; God promises enmity and a crushed head. Paul says the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet. Revelation names the dragon that ancient serpent — one enemy, one promise.

Limit: Rev 12:9 names the dragon as the ancient serpent — do not treat every OT tannin or Job's Leviathan as a Satan proof.

► Show 8 passages

Pharaoh the Dragon of the Nile

Ezekiel names Pharaoh the great dragon of the Nile. Isaiah's Rahab is that Egypt/chaos monster God cut — not Rahab of Jericho. Aaron's staff becoming a tannin before Pharaoh is the sign, not a Satan proof.

Limit: Rahab here is the sea-monster / Egypt, not Rahab of Jericho. Pharaoh-as-dragon is empire imagery, not a second Satan proof.

Tread on Serpents

The psalm treads on serpent and adder; Jesus gives authority over serpents and scorpions; a viper does not harm Paul. Protection and authority — not a dare to handle snakes.

Limit: Protection and authority — not a dare to handle snakes.
